
Small markers: individual samples; lines: medians. Ten scale duplicates are removed; no uncertainty interval.

ε < 1 is necessary for this two-sided interval rule, but does not ensure a conclusive certificate. Reference eigensystems are required.